ALLIES ATTACK BULGARIANS.

By The Associated Press.
London, Oct. 18, 2:38 a. m.— The allied forces from Saloniki have begun operations against the Bulgarians with unexpected zeal, and already the Serbo-Anglo-French forces have penetrated into Bulgarian territory just north of the Greek boundary and are attacking the Bulgarian stronghold of Strumitza, according to advices received from Saloniki by Reuter's Telegram company by way of Athens.

By The Associated Press.

London, Oct. 17.—Although there is very heavy fighting at some points along the eastern front as well as in the west, the Austro-German and Bulgarian invasions of Serbia and the efforts of the British and French generals to bring help to their little ally before it is too late, continue to occupy the chief attention of the peoples of the belligerent countries.

The Serbians are being helped by the weather which is cold and winter like. The rains have set in and are impeding the movement of troops and guns, which at the best must be slow what answer for roads in the Balkan states.

The Germans, however, claim to have taken the heights south of Belgrade, while along the Danube the army of General von Gallwitz is pushing the Serbians back.

The Bulgarians also lay claim to a rapid advance into Macedonia, although the French are already reported to be in contact with them at Givigli while both the French and British continue to land troops at Saloniki.

Neither Russian or Italian assistance has yet developed, but the Italians have begun a more vigorous offensive along their frontier, and have captured Pegasus, an important advance of the fortified Riva group on Lake Garda. This will be of importance in the movement of Austrian troops from that frontier.

The Germans have taken the offensive south of Riga and forced the Russians out of their positions, capturing a large number of prisoners and some guns. On the rest of the eastern front the offensive remains in the hands of the Russians, who are attacking west of Dvinsk, in the center and to the south of the Pripiet river.

On the whole it appears to observers here as if the Germans were satisfied merely to hold their present line, except in the north where they have made repeated attempts to take Dvinsk. This would mean the fall of Riga and would compel the Russians to withdraw behind the Dvina river.

This ambition already has cost the Germans many thousands of men, but they keep on trying, first in the north, then in the south and then on the Dvinsk front. At present their attacks are developing the greatest force in the north.

There is somewhat of a lull in Flanders and Champagne on the western front—probably the calm before another storm of shells. Activity for Great Bulgarian General to Command Army

General Savoff, the skillful strategist of King Ferdinand of Bulgaria, who has been called by the king to take command of the army which has just arrayed itself with the Teutons against the allies. The fact that he has been recalled to take command vindicates him for unavoidable losses in the Balkan war when he was in danger of being tried by court martial.

Batts Is Ready to Address Jury in New Haven Trial

By The Associated Press.
New York, Oct. 17.—Robert L. Batts, special assistant to Attorney General Gregory and his former law partner in Texas, had completed tonight the summary of the address he will make to the jury tomorrow in outlining the government's case against Wm. Rockefeller, Lewis Cass Ledyard, Edward D. Robbins and their eight co-defendants, charged as directors of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad with conspiring to monopolize the transportation traffic of New England.

The summary alone covers more than sixty typewritten pages, containing scarcely more than the bare skeleton of the huge mass of testimony which the government expects to present in proof of the alleged unlawful methods used by the defendants to bring all competitors of the New York, New Haven and Hartford under their control.

Interned Germans Put Out to Sea and Escape from U. S.

By The Associated Press.
Norfolk, Va., Oct. 17.—The coast guard cutter Onondaga went to sea today to join in the search for the missing yacht Eclipse, on which six German officers from the interned cruiser Kron Prinz Wilhelm are believed to have gone to sea.

Reports from headquarters of the coast guard service say every cutter along the Atlantic coast has been instructed to search for the missing yacht.

Moonshine Whiskey Conspiracy Cases Are to Begin Today

By The Associated Press.
Fort Smith, Ark., Oct. 17.—Trials of defendants in the alleged moonshine whiskey conspiracy which government prosecutors assert reached into several states and for which more than twenty men have been indicted, are expected to begin tomorrow in the federal court here.

The indictments include seven former revenue agents. In addition to Knox Booth, of Nashville, Tenn., and John L. Surber of Atlanta, Ga., whose trials have been postponed, Thomas C. McCoy of Asheville, N. C., S. L. Williams of Winston-Salem, N. C., J. W.
Grider of Sonora, Ark., J. Henry Brown of Harrison, Ark., and N. C. Spradling of Aurora, all formerly in the government revenue service, are defendants. McCoy and Williams retired from the service several years ago.
Resistance to extradition was successfully carried out by McCoy. Williams, after leaving the service, became associated, it is alleged, with John L.
Casper of Fort Smith, known as the head of the alleged moonshine organization.

The other defendants who will appear for trial mostly are men said to be connected with distilleries illegally operated and largely are residents of Arkansas. Some, however, live in North Carolina, Georgia, West Virginia and other states.

It is charged by the government that it was defrauded to the extent of thousands of dollars through the placing upon barrels of whiskey of revenue stamps that had been removed from other packages, thus allowing the conspirators to evade the payment of the manufacturing tax.

Police Chief Is Killed by Negro

By The Associated Press.
Galesburg, Ill., Oct. 17.—Lynn Matthews, chief of police, was shot and killed tonight while leading a raid on a negro gambling house. When the officers called on the negroes to submit to arrest they refused and opened fire with revolvers. A bullet believed to have been fired by "Lottie" Hopkins passed through the chief's right lung and he died in a short time.
Hopkins escaped. About twenty-five shots were exchanged.

France Declares War on Bulgaria

By The Associated Press.
Paris, Oct. 17.—The council of ministers, presided over by President Poincare, announced at noon today that a state of war existed between France and Bulgaria, dating from 6 a. m. October 16.

The ministers, at a special Sunday meeting held at Elysee Palace, after going over in council the diplomatic and military situation, adopted the following:
Bulgaria, having taken action with our enemies and against the allies of France, the government of the republic announces that a state of war exists between Bulgaria and France, from October 16, at 6 o'clock in the morning, through the action of Bulgaria.

The declaration of a state of war between France and Bulgaria follows the line of action taken by the British government, except that the time is fixed at 6 a. m. Saturday instead of the British hour of 10 p. m. Friday.
The time named in the French statement is that at which the commander of the allied fleet in the eastern Mediterranean was ordered to take action by blockading the Aegean Sea coast off Bulgaria.

CHAS. TODAR BURNED AND HOME DESTROYED BY GAS EXPLOSION

WHILE WACO GROCER IS CLEAN-ING TROUSERS WITH GASOLINE BROTHER STRIKES MATCH IN ROOM TO LIGHT A CIGAR-ETTE.

SLIGHT CHANCES FOR RECOVERY

Physicians Fear Injured Man Has Breathed Some of the Flames—Two Other Persons Burned But Not Seriously—House at 625 South Ninth Street is Total Loss.

Literally burned from head to foot, Charles Todar lies at Providence sanitarium in a critical condition, his house at 625 South Ninth street is totally destroyed, his brother, Jake To-dar, is badly burned and a large portion of the hair on Mrs. Todar's head is burned off, all as the result of the attempted lighting of a cigarette in a room surcharged with the vapor from gasoline.

Mr. Todar, a well known Waco grocer, 34 years old, was cleaning a pair of trousers with gasoline in his kitchen last night. About 9 o'clock Jake Todar, a brother, came into the room and, striking a match, started to light a cigarette. An explosion of the gasoline substance in the close room resulted immediately and the house burned to the ground before the fire department could get there.

Jake Todar was badly burned on both hands from the elbow down and around the neck, but jumped through a window, the glass cutting his shoulder and ran to Thomas' drug store, on South Eighth street, where his burns were dressed.

Charles Todar was not so fortunate and it is feared that he breathed some of the flames. He was taken to the home of Chris Komendo and from there to Providence sanitarium.

Dr. R. Spencer Wood, who attended Mr. Todar at the sanitarium, said that the skin was burned off both hands and off of both arms most of the way to the shoulder, that he was badly burned on the face and all around the neck, on the nose and inside the nose and mouth, on the breast and both sides and down around the ankles.

Some of the lives in the neighborhood were burned, but it had not been discovered last night whether or not any of the flames had been breathed.
Dr. Wood said last night that if any of the flames had been inhaled, Mr.
Todar's chances for recovery were very slight, otherwise that he might recover in six or seven weeks.

None of Mr. Todar's six children were badly hurt and Mrs. Todar's damages consisted only in the loss of a portion of her hair. The house, a two-story frame structure, was valued at $1500. Fire Marshal Joe Carlisle says it is a total loss and that only a small amount of insurance was carried. The house next door, at 621 South Ninth, belonging to Mrs. Dutton and occupied by A. Haushold, was slightly damaged and the contents considerably damaged by water. Prompt work by the fire department kept the flames from spreading.

Germany Will Try to Get Back Trade in South America

By The Associated Press.

Washington, Oct. 17.—Preparations already are under way in Germany for an aggressive trade campaign to be waged in South America at the close of the war, according to a report of the American Association of Commerce and Trade in Berlin, made public here today by the bureau of foreign and domestic correspondence.
German manufacturers, the report says, have organized a "trade league" for South America, headed by Dr.
Bernard Dernburg, who attracted much attention in the United States last spring by his activities as an exponent of German opinion.

Dr. Dernburg is quoted as declaring that Germany must look to South America for compensation for trade losses that may follow the war. Addressing the first meeting of the new league in Berlin, he said:

"South America as a foreign trade territory, is of special value to us because we do not know how relations to our enemies of today will shape themselves after the war and for this reason we must eventually look there for compensation.

"One advantage to Germany is her widespread and well organized merchant marine and her methodical banking system. For this reason we need not fear foreign competition for many generations to come. But if the war should last a very long while, foreign trade will finally be obliged to seek other channels, and then a recapturing of lost export territory will be rendered difficult.

"Of importance is not only the strengthening of our economic influence, but also the gaining of a certain spiritual influence. No doubt Germany's energy and pluck are remarkable but Latin and Anglo-Saxon people do not like to be made conscious of this fact or to have it rubbed in.

The less presumption asserted in making our influence felt, the more friends we will make. And if we do not change our attitude in this respect our opponents will get the better of us in spite of our smartness."

The bureau of foreign and domestic commerce has for the past year conducted a vigorous extension campaign in South America.

Frisco Train Is Held North of Hugo Between Washouts

By The Associated Press.

Fort Worth, Tex., Oct. 17.—A Frisco passenger train, due here Sunday morning, is held between washouts north of Hugo, Okla., with all wire communication down, according to reports received at the office of the dispatcher Sunday night. The information was received from Fort Smith but the location of the washouts in Oklahoma has not been ascertained.
The heaviest rains in the history of the country caused the loss of several miles of track and it is believed that the scene of the washout is near Antlers where there are several small but dangerous streams.

According to the information received, six spans of the Katy bridge over the Red River north of Denison also are gone as the result of heavy rains in West Texas and Oklahoma. This train is used for the past year conducting the Katy and trains from the north are being detoured, while stub train service has been established between Fort Worth and Sherman.

VOTES FOR WOMEN TO BE DECIDED AT NEW JERSEY POLLS

FIRST FIERCE FIGHT WOMEN HAVE WAGED IN EAST WILL END TONIGHT—VOTE DECIDES WHETHER AMENDMENT TO CONSTITUTION IS TO BE MADE.

THREE OTHER STATES BESEIGED

New York, Massachusetts and Pennsylvania Will Pass on Same Question in General Election Nov. 2.
Party Lines Are Swept Aside—Opposition Is Strong.

By The Associated Press.

Newark, N. J., Oct. 17.—The first fierce fight which women have waged in eastern states for the ballot will come to a close tomorrow night with New Jersey as the battlefield. The next day the fate of "votes for women" will be decided at the polls by a vote on an amendment to the state constitution which, if adopted, will give the franchise to all women over 21 residing five years within the state.

The state fight will be the first of four to be decided in the eastern surfrage theatre. Voters in New York, Massachusetts and Pennsylvania will not pass upon the contention until the next regular election on November 2.

In New Jersey, however, the issue is to be fought out in a special election, the sole question coming before the electorate being the adoption of this amendment and two others of minor importance.

Party lines have been swept aside.
The entire four months' campaign has been waged virtually by the proponents of suffrage with little rivalry, but in the face of quiet and organized opposition.

Both sides claimed victory tonight.
The Woman's Political union and the New Jersey State Suffrage association in co-operation and aided by the National Suffrage association, have conducted a tireless campaign, sending their four "flying squadrons" into almost every section of the state.

Suffrage workers still are jubilant over President Wilson's declaration in favor of the cause, and believe that his stand will contribute more than any other single cause to their expected victory.

Six of the New Jersey's 21 counties, it is thought, will virtually decide the issue. These are Hudson, in which are situated Jersey City, Hoboken and Bayonne; Essex, of which Newark is the county seat; Bergen, the home of thousands of New York commuters; Passaic, which includes Paterson and Passaic Union; Elizabeth, the chief city, and Camden, just across the Delaware river from Philadelphia.

Merger county, in which Trenton, the capital, is located, also will have a big voice in deciding the issue. This is the county in which President Wilson will cast his vote for the amendment.

In conducting their campaign the suffragists have centered their attack on these counties. Everett Colby, of West Orange, father of the New Idea wing of the republican party in New Jersey, which later was known as the progressive-republican element, and finally became the progressive party, and Mrs. Colby, have been foremost in the ranks of the suffrage leaders. Financial aid has been forthcoming also, it is said, from Mrs.
George J. Gould of Lakewood.

Among the speakers who have campaign in behalf of the amendment in the state are Wm. J. Bryan, Senator Borah of Idaho, Senator Clapp of Minnesota, Mrs. Henry D. Robinson, Senator Helen E. Robinson of Colorado, Mrs. George B. Bass of Chicago, Lieut.-Gov. W. Y. Morgan of Kansas, Henry J. Allen of Wichita, Kans., and Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, president of the national association.

Woman suffrage has been actively advocated in the state for about six years. Three years ago suffrage leaders obtained the enactment of a resolution adopted by the legislature permitting voters to decide the matter at the polls. Under the constitution such a resolution must be adopted by two successive legislatures and must be advertised in a certain manner. A law enacted last winter gives the association the right to station watchers.
Hence, for the first time in her history New Jersey next Tuesday will have women watchers at the polls.

SUMMARY OF WAR

The British, French and Serbians have joined forces in the Balkans and are attacking the Bulgarian town of Strumitsa, according to latest dispatches from Saloniki, by way of Athens. The operations are being conducted vigorously and the advices add that the fall of Strumitsa is imminent.

Anglo-French forces, just about the time of the outbreak of hostilities between Serbia and Bulgaria, were hurried northward from Saloniki to Givigli, which is directly south of Strumitsa. Apparently they are carrying out the previously reported plan of invading Bulgaria, in addition to assisting Serbia in holding back the Bulgarians.

The French government has announced the existence of a state of war between France and Bulgaria, dating from 6 a. m. October 16. This follows the British declaration which was made the previous night.

Almost coincidentally with the announcement of Paris comes the report from Athens that the French troops in Macedonia are now engaged with the Bulgarians, who number 40,000.

Already many thousands of the British and French troops who were landed at Saloniki are on their way to form a junction with the Serbians or to take up strategic positions against the Bulgarian advance. A late dispatch from Malta, the British naval station in the Mediterranean, predicts that the entente allies will during the course of the next few days send strong new forces to Saloniki for operations against the Austro-Germans and Bulgarians.

Hard pressed by Austro-German troops, estimated at about 280,000 men, on the Save-Danube front, and fighting at various points on the line to hold back the Bulgarians, the Serbians are anxiously awaiting the assistance of the Anglo-French troops, but they are being favored by the weather conditions and by the natural defenses of the country, and the progress of the invaders has not been pronounced.

Italian participation in the Balkan campaign is apparently no nearer now than at the beginning of hostilities, but the Italian forces on the Austrian frontier have displayed renewed activity and, according to the Italian official communication, "by a bold and well-conducted operation, took by storm the strong position of Pegasina." This is an important strategic point near Lake Garda and its capture was effected only after the heaviest fighting. The operation permitted the Italians to take up strong positions on the surrounding heights.

In the western theatre of operations have been in progress in Lorraine and the Vosges mountains, and it is probable also that the allied warships have been bombarding the Belgian coast, as there was continuous heavy gun fire in that direction throughout Sunday.

Special to The Morning News.

Up spoke William promptly.

TRAVELING MEN PLAN TRIP TO STATE FAIR

SPECIAL TRAIN WILL BOOST THE COTTON PALACE AT DALLAS NEXT SATURDAY.

Permanent Organization Formed—J. S. McClintock Is First President.

At a meeting yesterday morning of the traveling men interested in the excursion to Dallas on next Saturday for Traveling Men's day at the Dallas fair to boost Waco and the Cotton Palace, the amount of $210 to secure the special train was raised and invitations will be extended the Cotton Palace officials, the Young Men's Business League, the Chamber of Commerce, the mayor and city commissioners and the press to be represented, that every one may boost for the Cotton Palace and Waco and enjoy a great get-together outing at the Dallas fair.

The meeting was called to order at the Hotel Waco by Chairman J. S. McClintock, there being about fifty of the knights of the grip present. The following were named as a committee to arrange for a band to accompany the traveling men's special to Dallas next Saturday: C. B. Ivy, chairman; T. C. Edmondson, L. W. Hilburn and J. F. Gaither. The committee on badges: J. B. Clark, W. A. Clark and P. G. Taylor.

A letter was read from J. H. Speed, general secretary of the Dallas traveling men's committee, announcing the arrangements perfected for the excursion and entertainment of the excursionists from Waco. The special train will leave at 9:30 and will arrive at the T. & P. downtown depot at about 10 o'clock. The fair association has arranged for special tickets to be allotted to traveling men and ladies. The special train over the T. & P. leaves at 10:30 for the fair grounds.

A letter was read from W. H. Stratton, secretary of the Dallas fair, stating that it would be the pleasure of the fair to have a band meet the Waco special.

A. D. Adams was placed at the head of the ticket selling campaign, which will be carried on Thursday over the city. In the meantime tickets for this special may be secured from Mr. Adams or any of the traveling men of Waco who have allotted seats. After hearing reports on the sale of tickets, it was shown that the special would be absolutely secured, rousing talks were made by Chairman J. S. McClintock, A. D. Adams, L. W. Hilburn, J. B. Clark, T. C. Edmondson, J. F. Gaither and others upon the splendid progress made and the benefit the trip would be to Waco and the Cotton Palace as an advertising medium.

Chairman A. D. Adams of the ticket-selling committee stated that he looked for at least 300 on the excursion, as the rate of $2.10, with a limit of three days is a very popular one. Chairman L. W. Hilburn of the transportation committee has been placed in charge of the train. The Katy has been selected as the official route, the special leaving Waco next Saturday morning at 9:30 o'clock. After the business above outlined was concluded, L. W. Hilburn suggested the formation of a permanent traveling men's association of Waco, which he called on E. A. Schmitt, a well-known traveling man of Texas, whose home is in San Antonio, to outline the working plan of the San Antonio knights of the grip. Mr. Schmitt outlined the objects of the San Antonio social, the dues being only $1.00 per year. The idea met with instant favor and motion unanimously passed that the traveling men of Waco go into permanent organization.

The following were elected as the first officers unanimously by a rising vote: J. S. McClintock, president; J. B. Clark, vice president; L. W. Hilburn, secretary; L. W. Hilburn, treasurer; L. W. Hilburn, elected chairman of the finance committee, and named the following others on his committee: E. A. Schmitt, J. F. Gaither, G. L. Mater, Tom G. de Cordova.

T. C. Edmondson was elected as chairman of the amusement committee. He selected his other committee men as follows: P. G. Taylor, M. L. Smith, L. B. Stone and Holloway Smith.

Wm. T. Wheeler was elected chairman of the membership committee for the new organization. Mr. Wheeler named the following to assist: E. A. Schmitt, Tom G. de Cordova, H. L. Stewart and George B. Eubank. J. F. Gaither's motion that the traveling men have a meeting on Sunday, October 21st, at 10 a. m., for the purpose of perfecting their organization and make plans for the future, carried.

The following enrolled as charter members of the Traveling Men's Association of Waco: L. W. Hilburn, J. F. Gaither, T. C. Edmondson, E. A. Womble, D. L. Seale, G. L. Mater, C. G. Feist, M. L. Smith, E. A. Schmitt, J. F. Melton, L. B. Stone, J. S. McClintock, M. B. B. Moore, W. E. Grooms, A. H. Gans, Win-Moore, Joe M. Coffield, Mainer Cochran, N. S. Clifton, E. S. Kean, Jr. J. S. McClintock, the first president of the organization, has been traveling out of Waco for nearly forty years.

He congratulated the traveling men for their spirit of enterprise and good will shown in putting on the booster jaunt to Dallas, predicted a tremendous crowd and pledged his hearty support to any movement of the fraternity.

L. W. Hilburn, who had been appointed to see if Mayor J. W. Rigkins in his famous cotton suit, and a squad of Waco policemen in their white uniforms could be prevailed on to make the trip, reported in the affirmative. In order that all can reach the Katy station in time for the train Saturday morning, Superintendent Harvey Ross of the Southern Traction company announces that cars will leave the ends of the various lines at the following times: Providence Heights, 5:42; Oakwood, 5:48; Sanger avenue, 5:48; North Fifth, 5:49; North Ninth, 5:50; East Waco, 5:45; Cotton Palace, 5:50. This will put all cars at the Rigkins hotel at 6 o'clock and the crowd will then walk on down to the depot.

Redfield Tells of Sale of Pacific Mail Ships

Special to The Morning News.

Washington, Oct. 17.—The following letter was given out by Hon. William G. McAdoo, secretary of the treasury, with the approval of the secretary of commerce:

October 7, 1915.

Dear Mr. Secretary:

The sale of some of its ships by the Pacific Mail Steamship company has been made the basis of such statements both by that company and in the press generally that it may be well to place before you such facts as are at this time readily available. It has been alleged that the company's business and in particular that the so-called language clause would require the abandonment of Asiatic crews and the substitution for them of English-speaking crews, with a consequent prohibitive cost of wages, and that since, therefore, the company could not operate profitably, it was obliged to sell its vessels and withdraw from business. Its attitude may be compressed into the statement made to me by Mr. R. P. Schwerin, vice president and general manager, who said: "I know where I am licked."

It should be said, however, that the department of commerce is charged with the duty of making the regulations required by the law through which the company is operating. These regulations had not been prepared at the time when the company's action was taken. Anything respecting the nature or tenor of the regulations and did not, so far as the department is concerned, in any way to learn the details. It acted, so far as the department knows, upon an assumed interpretation of the law, which had no official sanction.

It seems, I confess, an extraordinary thing that a company which at the time of its withdrawal was doing a business which was probably more prosperous than ever in its history should have made the sacrifice, which business seems to imply because of the alleged future effects of a law, concerning which law it asked no question whatever of the department charged with interpreting and enforcing that law.

It seemed to me so astonishing that a great business should be thus sacrificed (if this indeed were the case) without the least inquiry upon the subject of the sole available source of information, that I took occasion before the matter was concluded to inform Mr. R. P. Schwerin personally that he had reached a conclusion as to how the language clause would be construed, it was his opinion, so far as the matter had then gone, that this clause would not bear the construction which the company had put upon it and that in this respect, as in at least one other element of the statements published on behalf of the company, there was, to say the least, a strong probability that the alleged basis of their proposed action was not a basis which existed in fact.

Urged Compliance With Law.

I furthermore pointed out to Mr. Schwerin at that time, which was somewhat prior to July 15, that if the company desired to avoid the alleged sacrifice of its business and the Pacific Mail Steamship Co., in which some interesting facts appear. That statement says the Manchuria and Mongolia, each eleven years old, were each built at a cost of $2,000,000. It appears that the company had been charged off upon its property. If we assume that the value of each ship was $1,100,000. In the latter case it would be $866,667.

The vessels sold for $1,500,000. The Korea and the Siberia are said in a report of the company to have cost to build $3,970,114.27. The Korea is 13 years old, the Siberia 12½ years old. Assuming both as 12½ years old, their present valuation, taken together on a basis of 5 per cent annual depreciation, would be $3,744,172. If the vessels were sold at a price which would be 25 per cent of their joint cost or $962,778. They sold for $2,000,000.

China Was 26 Years Old.
The China is 26 years old, cost about $800,000 and would, on the basis of 5 per cent depreciation charged, have been entirely marked off six years ago. She sold for $250,000. Drawing figures too finely in the absence of an examination of the company's books, here is an apparent discrepancy of a million dollars over what the normal valuation of the ships would have been if the company had been following a policy of reducing their value by 5 per cent annually. If they followed a more conservative course in their accounting, the profit would have been correspondingly enhanced.

It would appear to be possible that the company, after doing business for 16 years, after a dividend found that existing conditions gave them an opportunity of selling out a portion of their property at a price which would return the full valuation of that property upon the company's books, plus at least a million more, and that a very natural desire to achieve this desirable result may in some measure at least have prompted the sale. Certainly it is a singular thing that the company's stock, which on March 17 last, at the close of the best fiscal year the company has had for years, sold at 18, should on August 3, 1915, long months after the season 23, have been enacted and after the company's negotiations for selling its vessels had been well forwarded, have sold for a price which was less than the value which had been doubled in value because of that transaction.

Finally, I hand you a copy of the Journal of Commerce of San Francisco, dated September 27, 1915, and another dated September 29, 1915, from which it would be learned that others are eager to pick up the mantle which the Pacific Mail has set aside. I am even inclined to think it may be found that American vessels may be found to take the place of the transport products of American manufacturers to the Orient.

HE HELPED SHOOT UP OLD VERA CRUZ

Was One of "Uncle Sam's" Boys Who Assisted to Carry Out the "Watchful Waiting" Policy.

Interest in the celebrated system of "watchful waiting" is now intense. News of the wonders it has worked in the large cities throughout the country has come to local ears and everyone is realizing that an established policy of "watchful waiting" is being received every day of the benefits that have been derived from the use of Plant Juice.

One of the most recent received is from Mr. Alexander Brown, who lives at Haughville, Ind. R. R. Uo. 19, and who is a well-known and popular young man, as he was one of "Uncle Sam's" boys who recently took a cruise in Southern waters to assist General Huerta to salute "Old Glory," and who incidentally participated in the fighting in Vera Cruz. He said: "For the past two years I have been a sufferer from indigestion. Since my service in the navy it has grown steadily worse until lately I could scarcely retain food of any kind in my stomach, as it would ferment and run-down and miserable condition. A friend recommended Plant Juice, saying that it had cured him of a bad case of stomach trouble. I am now on a diet of food, for the stomach trouble has entirely disappeared and I am in first-class condition, thanks to Plant Juice."

Gentlemen:
It affords me great pleasure to testify to the merits of the "Ziegler" Hot Blast Gas Heater purchased from you. I have been the user of natural gas for the past ten years here and at other places, and have used practically all other makes of stoves. I have yet to find any gas stove that has given me the entire satisfaction that the "Ziegler" Hot Blast Stove has.
I have a "Ziegler" Stove in my home. It is heating three rooms in a most satisfactory manner. Last winter I used two stoves to do this same work. I am also using the "Ziegler" in my place of business and it is giving a most splendid heat and I can simply say that without a doubt the "Ziegler" Heater is the best on earth.
I find that with the "Ziegler" Stove I am able to get direct heat instantaneously and on the floor, where it is most needed. No other gas stove has ever done this for me.
Yours truly,
J. F. RIGGS.

Two Arrests Made in the Killing at Charleston, S. C.
By The Associated Press.
Charleston, S. C., Oct. 17.—Henry J. Brown, who was arrested after the shooting in the rooms of the city democratic executive committee Friday, when Sidney J. Cohen, a newspaper reporter, was killed and four persons wounded, today was formally charged with murder and conspiracy to cause the shooting. Edward R. McDonald, who also was arrested after the shooting, was charged with conspiracy and assault with intent to kill.

Both Brown and McDonald have secured writs of habeas corpus requiring the chief of police to show cause why they should not be released. The habeas corpus hearing and the inquest over the body of Cohen will be held tomorrow. Four members of the National Guard and three divisions of the naval militia were held in their armories on duty last night, and will remain on duty tomorrow and both the inquest and habeas corpus hearing will be held under military guard.

It was indicated today that Mayor John P. Grace would contest in the decision of the executive committee which yesterday declared that Tristram T. Hyde had defeated Grace for the democratic nomination for mayor. The committee was canvassing the returns of Tuesday's primary when the shooting occurred. Friday, yesterday the committee met again and declared Hyde the nominee. An appeal for "calmness and order" was signed by a number of citizens today.

WEEKLY COTTON REVIEW.
Special to The Morning News.
New Orleans, Oct. 17.—The price of cotton made moderate gains last week, being held down by constant liquidation by realizing longs. The news was bullish and the market, however, did not have the buying power it has displayed at times in the recent past. At the best of the week, prices were 43 to 54 points over the preceding week's final quotations. The close was at a net gain of 23 to 30 points.
Weather conditions over the belt were reported as generally unsatisfactory. Telegrams and letters from the interior continued to claim the absence of a top crop. Many Texas reports stated that picking was finished or nearly so and that some fields were being sowed to grain.
Toward the end of the week a private bureau issued a report claiming that the crop over the whole belt was 60 per cent crop over the recent past. The news was gathered. Because of these reports an short crop ideas were entertained by a number of brokers and traders. Statistics did not furnish much inspiration for operations, since in some

Delivery routes in the City of Waco are in the hands of independent carriers, who buy their papers at wholesale prices.
Subscription accounts are due them, not the Waco Morning News. They are not delivery service, but to pay for the is the difference between the wholesale price and the retail price which they receive from subscribers. This margin of profit is such that they cannot afford to extend credit, except month by month.

They are not required, and they are advised against, delivering the paper to anyone who does not pay in accordance with the above subscription terms. These carriers are all earnest, hard working men and they will appreciate any cour-

The Morning News should be delivered

A TIP FOR THE POLITICIANS.

In a recent issue of The Fourth Estate, a weekly magazine for the makers of newspapers, we find the following timely suggestion for politicians and other seekers for office:

"The political season is again at hand. What methods are the candidates going to adopt to win public offices?"

"Are they going to follow the old style of campaigning or are they going to be more up-to-date and use the force of publicity that is theirs to use?"

"Nowadays voters wish to know what a candidate's particular qualifications are for the office which he seeks."

"Voters no longer are content merely to vote for a man because he has been active in politics. Public office is a public trust and the voters are beginning to use fine discrimination in making their selections."

"They are as particular as are the directors of a great corporation when they elect officers to look after their interests."

"Why should not the voters be just as careful?"

"A city or a county is a great corporation. It is a vast business enterprise."

"The men who conduct the business of the public corporations must be as competent and as honest as the men who look after the affairs of private corporations."

"The shrewd candidate realizes all this. If he is honest and competent he loses no time in letting the people know just what his qualifications are and what he proposes to do."

"The only way in which he can reach a great majority of the voters is through the advertising columns of the newspapers."

"Such publicity will do its work in spite of scheming opponents. It has done it in the past; when the voters went to the polls they felt that they personally knew the man who so frankly told them what he stood for."

"Newspapers should impress the value of the uses of their advertising columns for political promotion purposes. When they refuse free publicity, they will benefit financially by the political season, indeed of coming out on the short end, as so many of them usually do."

Texas papers have been all too free with their space in promoting the campaigns of the various candidates for office. Newspapers are run, or should be at least, on a business basis.
Their advertising space is their chief asset. The candidates who seek office are looking largely to the salary that is attached and there is no more reason why the papers should carry their appeals for votes without charge than that they should carry the cards of idle men and women who want work, those of other persons desiring change of position, the sale of an article or anything else without cost. Past offenses have been due as much to the failure of the papers to demand their rights as to the imposing disposition of the office seekers; but the newspapers are waking up now and the politicians will have to do likewise.

Since President Wilson was sorely disappointed in failing to get apple pie at Harper's Ferry last Saturday on the occasion of his outing with his fiancée, some high school girl of this city who has learned how to cook might win a reputation by baking a good apple pie and forwarding it to the white house.

BROTHER ROBINSON AND DR. BROOKS.

Brother Robinson of the Times-Herald, in reply to a recent prodding from this paper anent his slowness to espouse the candidacy of Dr. Samuel Palmer Brooks for the senatorship from Texas, after having repeatedly suggested in his columns from time to time that the president of Baylor was of senatorial size, says he is awaiting a formal pronouncement from Dr. Brooks on the question of nationalism before deciding whether or not he will support the educator.

Dr. Brooks will be able to speak for himself on this and all other issues when the time comes. Brother Robinson, in referring to the president of Baylor University, says:

"But we do not seek to influence the judgment of Dr. Brooks; we are only indicating what we think would be his logical position. Having the right view of this matter, we know of no man in Texas who would reflect greater credit on the state than Samuel Palmer Brooks. He towers like Saul. He has the courage of his convictions under all circumstances. But the biggest man can dwarf himself by espousing a wrong cause. We await the opening address of our distinguished fellow-citizen."

It is of no consequence to this paper whom our neighbor supports for senator or for any other office. Our only interest in the matter was to point out Brother Robinson's inconsistency in sitting upon the fence and penning puns on whom his neighbors were supporting without advising his readers as to whom he will favor with his ballot.

THIS NATION'S IDEALS.

In addressing the Grand Army of the Republic recently, at Washington, the president of the United States set forth a proposition which strikes home to the people's purpose and hope in this hour, perhaps almost as the great central proposition of the Gerraburg speech did in its day, in the opinion of the Christian Science Monitor.
For at this time the people of the United States, as never before, are reaching hands of fellowship to all who strive and suffer, rising above partiality and discrimination in their hearts, however their heads may tempt them to alien as partisans.

The president said: "I hope we shall never forget that we created this nation, not to serve ourselves, but to serve mankind." The United States was founded "not to provide free homes but to assert human rights," and it wishes its wealth and financial power "devoted to ideal ends."

President Wilson knows the people he is addressing, and knows the response his words must meet. It is as true of nations as of individuals that they rise to the nobilities expected of them by their friends more often than they disappoint a high demand and trust. Here is set forth the heart of the purposes of the United States from the first. The nation has never sought to be a master of men, an avenger or a judge, nor yet a mere burden-bearer. It has sought to stand side by side with all who need its aid, to share its good of every sort with the weak or outcast or needy in an equality of brotherhood. The president reminded the veterans that they had seen a war unique in this that "instead of making permanent division it made a permanent union."

Emerson's word, used in another connection, is, moreover, true to the deepest consciousness of the people of the United States as it has been expressed by their president:

It is an ill wind that blows nobody good. A storm on the New England coast the other day blew enough wood from the sea to do some of the residents living in the outskirts of Boston all winter.

If Governor Ferguson wants to put one over on ex-Governor Campbell in the reduction of the tax rate he might try his hand at collecting that $30,- 000,000 in back taxes, due the state, and turn it into the state treasury.
This would enable him to abolish the tax rate altogether for a few years, which would be some achievement.

Representatives of twenty-five wholesale mercantile establishments in St. Louis will leave for Mexico December 1 to work up trade in that territory. There is no mistaking the fact that Mexico will be a very fertile business field when peace and order are finally restored and we see no reason why Texas should not reap a portion of the resultant prosperity.

We have fallen for lots of different kinds of fish stories but the latest one to the effect that, due to the diminution in trans-Atlantic travel, incident to the war, the sharks have become so hungry that one of them swallowed a wound alarm clock taxes our power of belief. To make the story more realistic the narrator describes the peculiar antics of the shark when the clock went off.

ISSUE IN TUESDAY'S ELECTION.

After all the discussion concerning the sewage disposal plant, through the press and otherwise, citizens of the city should be perfectly familiar with the issue presented in Tuesday's bond election and should go to the polls and cast their votes as prompted by their best information and judgment.

One important consideration needs to be kept in mind by all qualified voters and that is that the city stands greatly in need of an adequate sewage disposal plant, regardless of the anti-stream pollution bill, a state measure requiring such a step; for with the construction of the lock and dam across the Brazos a few miles below the city the sewage which in case of the river becoming very low, as it did a few years ago, would be diverted into the intake of our present filtration plant and pollute the city's water supply.

If the amount proposed for a sewage disposal plant should afterwards prove inadequate for the undertaking the bonding margin of the city will have increased sufficiently by that time to permit an additional issue, so we believe the voters of the city can rest assured that they will get an adequate disposal plant, even if the $75,000 asked in tomorrow's election should not be sufficient, which we trust it will.

Every citizen is free to vote as his judgment dictates. It is our personal conviction that the bond election should carry and we trust that others believing that way will take the pains to cast their ballot accordingly.

BOSTON—HEADQUARTERS FOR BEANS AND BASEBALL.

Famed more for its "high brow" culture than for its physical prowess, Boston has nevertheless won more world's championships on the diamond than any other city on the earth. It began away back even before the Temple Cup battles which the Beaneaters used to wage against the old Champion Orioles and it has been annexing the blue ribbons of the national game from time to time ever since.

Boston has the unique distinction of having had its two big league teams win world's championships in successive years, and in the two annual series the Boston teams won eight out of the nine games played and lost the other on a fluke.

Boston's consistent success would seem to show that baseball is an intellectual occupation, but a good deal is doubtless due to the loyalty and enthusiasm and gameness of Boston's army of fans. It is a great ball town.

In the series that ended Wednesday few will doubt that the better team won. In all the games, even in the first, the Red Sox showed themselves to be a shade better in defense, especially in the box, with an offense just a little more dashing and effective, and a nerve just a trifle steadier than their opponents. It was a fine series, and the last game was the hair-raising of them all.

Incidentally, it was noticeable how many southern boys were among the stars of the two pennant-winning teams. Eppa Rixey, who pitched for the "Phillies" Wednesday, is a young giant from Virginia, and a University of Virginia man. Mayer, who pitched in two of the games, is an Atlanta boy, and Whitted is from Durham, N.
C. Duguey is a Texan.

The south is still better represented among the Red Sox. Shore, who pitched two of the games, is a North Carolinian; Foster is from Arkansas, "Dabe" Ruth from Maryland, Scott from Arkansas, Gainer and Hoblitzel from West Virginia, and the great "Tris" Speaker from Texas.

Bell county will vote on the probi-tion question November 13.

"Is none so high, so mean is none, But feels and seals this union."

ness is an army post in his district,

Bolling green, the dominant shade

Governor Ferguson, in an address at Dallas, declared that crooked lawyers were caused by crooked clients.
Maybe so, but who's responsible for the crooked clients?

Governor Hall of Louisiana announces that he has been too busy to name a new private secretary. Some politicians we have heard of have been too busy appointing to office to do the other work for which they were elected.

Governor Ferguson authorizes the announcement that he will pardon the 100 friendless convicts in the state prison recommended for clemency by the state board of pardons. We have thought all along that the friendless man with a good record had a much better claim to clemency than the bad man with political influence, though the latter has received much larger consideration from the powers that be in the past.

CONFEDERATES HOLD MEMORIAL SERVICE

TOUCHING SCENE AT AUSTIN AVE. CHURCH WHEN VETER-ANS COVENANT TOGETHER.

ELOQUENT SERMON PREACHED

Rev. Frank P. Culver Pays Fitting Tribute to Heroes and Urges Them to Keep Up Good Fight.

As a climax to the services at the Austin Avenue Methodist church yesterday morning, observing the annual memorial day of Pat Cleburne Camp No. 22, U. C. V., the veterans grasped the hand of Rev. F. P. Culver, the pastor, and of each other as well, pledging themselves in so doing to pray for one another that all might continue to fight the good fight of faith as long as the remnant of the army of the living remained upon the earth and that all be gathered together in response to the grand reveille on the morning of the resurrection and answer "Here" to the Divine roll call beyond the river.

The scene was a very effective one and following closely upon the very eloquent and spiritual discourse of Dr. Culver, it made a deep impression not alone upon the veterans themselves, practically all of whom were moved to tears, but upon the big audience that had gathered to witness the exercises.

Mrs. Chas. Atkins Sang "These Are They."

Proceeding the sermon the choir sang "Lead Kindly Light," and Bradford Hancock, adjutant of the camp, called the mortuary roll, showing that during the past year eighteen members of the camp, or more than 13 per cent of the total membership, had passed over the river to rest under the shade of the trees. Mr. Hancock said that of those who had died during the year, five had been over 80 years of age, 12 over 70, and one was 69. Though some of the ex-soldiers had not been greatly blessed with the goods of this world, all of them were ministered to in their last days and given decent burial, Mr. Hancock said.
He praised the work of the Daughters of the Confederacy very highly and said they would never permit the traditions of the Confederacy to die.

The Honored Dead.

On the roll of those who have died since memorial day of 1914 are the following:

Lovett T. Dilashaw, Co. F, 8th Texas infantry.

Rev. B. H. Carroll, Co. A, 17th Texas
infantry.

Taking his text from 1 Timothy 6:12,
"Fight the good fight of faith," Dr.
Culver said in part: "I esteem it a great privilege to stand as your representative on this solemn and impressive occasion. It is no slight task and no light honor which we feel for your departed comrades. In honoring their memory you honor yourselves, and what more fitting monument for those worthy heroes than that which rises sublimely out of the love and tears of a grateful people? It is a far more fitting way of transmitting their memory to succeeding generations, and like this will establish their heroism much more firmly in the minds and hearts of the people than monuments of bronze and marble."

"I hail you today as the survivors of a great epochal, glorious struggle, the remnant of as brave and select band of men as were ever marshalled on a field of battle. Nor do I hail you as the survivors of a lost cause, for no battle for truth and right is fought in vain, and the principles of local self-government for which you strove are more firmly established than this country today."

He said that both the victor and the vanquished being victorious in the end. I am proud of the fact that I am the son of one of your great number. I honor you and the grandeur of your deeds and hope the south will honor your memory still, and the memory of the southern women, who have more whose devotion to you and the cause challenged admiration of the whole world."

Not Dead But Living Still.

Dr. Culver declared the comrades whose memory was observed in the exercises were not dead, but living still, and advised that those who live nobly can never be imprisoned with the dead. The departed heroes of the Confederacy are moving on today in a triumphal procession, and he proph-etized a right and just justice. He told of visits to great churches and mausoleums in the old world where the heroes of the European nations lie buried, but all their honor did not compare, in his estimation, with that of the private of the Confederate army who fought for a high conviction and not for military or political aggression.
But these private soldiers have more enduring monuments than brass, one that is enshrined in the affections of an adoring people.

But there is a spiritual battlefield that calls the men of the gray today to the front, and he called Dr. Culver continued, and he called the survivors of that cause to fight as bravely in the "good fight" today as they did in behalf of the Confederacy more than a half century ago. The call to their today is to fight for spiritual freedom for all mankind. God is the commander in this battle, the minister continued, and His word must be heeded and His plan of campaign followed in order to ac-

"State of War" Is Plan to Stop the Riots in Moscow

By The Associated Press.
Petrograd, Via London, Oct. 17.—An imperial ukase has been issued proclaiming a "state of war" in Moscow and the Moscow district.
Disorders of considerable proportion have occurred in Moscow during the last few months. These have been chiefly attributed in advices from Russia to labor troubles, largely due to many persons having been thrown out of work by strikes and are declared not to have been of a political nature.
Mail advices that reached here from Russia last month described the June riots, in which several persons were injured and damage estimated at nearly $2,000,000 was done to property, as probably due to the growth in Moscow during the last fifteen years of a hand-to-mouth urban population which has come in from the villages. This element was described as having lost the steady influence of village life without acquiring the habits of the city. Later reports of rioting in Moscow have come through Germany, a news agency dispatch on October 11, telling of the building of barricades in the city's streets on September 27, twenty-five policemen and eight higher officials being wounded and three civilians killed and twelve wounded, according to this account.
